

Andrighetti Glassworks Presents: Beadmaking Workshops January/February 2010

Beadmaking for Beginners

Joanne Andrighetti

Level: Beginner

Sunday, January 24 or
Sunday, February 21
10am – 5pm

Fee: $150.

Experience the magic of making glass beads in a torch. In this introductory workshop you will make at least 12 beads using Effetre (soft) glass and a variety of traditional decorative techniques such as dots and stringer. There will also be information about safety, set-up and supplies.

Instructor:

Joanne Andrighetti is a glass artist with more than 25 years experience in glassblowing and flameworking, including 2 seasons as flameworking demonstrator at Canada's Wonderland. She is a graduate of Sheridan College's 3-year Craft & Design program and has exhibited extensively in Canada and the United States. She has operated Andrighetti Glassworks in Vancouver for 20 years as a hot glass studio, gallery, teaching facility and currently a flameworking studio and supply house.

Registration:

- * Call (604) 731-8652 to register or for more information.
- * Fees include all materials; GST extra
- * Workshops limited to 6 or 7 students
- * Students must be 16 years of age or older
- * A non-refundable deposit of 50% of workshop fee is required to reserve your space. Deposits may be transferred to another person but cannot be transferred to another date.
- * In most cases the glass will not be cooled enough to take home the day of the workshop. You may either return to pick up your work, or it can be mailed to you for a small fee.

Location:

Andrighetti Glassworks

3 West 3rd Ave. Unit C

Vancouver, BC

V5Y 3T8

We are at the corner of West 3rd Ave. &
Ontario St.

Please enter from the rear.

www.andrighetti.com